

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Imperial Mine Sold.

Telegraphic advices from Alexander Hamilton Sibley, who, with Messrs. Noble and Humphries, the eminent mining engineer, who recently examined the Imperial mine in behalf of himself and Detroit, Mich., associates, state the property has been accepted and money wired to Salt Lake City to close the deal.

The rich mine will pass into control of the Imperial Gold Mines Co., Limited, on December 7, and extensive development will be at once inaugurated.

The management will be vested in A. L. McEwen, Kenneth O. McEwen will be metallurgist, and John Arthur continues as superintendent of mill operations.

The new company will have a paid in capital stock of $150,000, par value of shares $1, and will immediately install a hoist to prosecute deep sinking on the Imperial vein, put a force developing the Eagle ore bodies and increase the milling capacity.

Lack of space prevents a full description of the valuable mine, which is one of the oldest and best known in the Cable Cove section—Blue Mountain American.

Advocates Good Horses.

J. H. Hughes of Baker City, was in Monument a few days this week. Mr. Hughes is representing H. G. McMillan, a breeder of thoroughbred horses and cattle, of Rock Rapids, Iowa, and had with him a fine Percheron stallion weighing 1700 pounds, which was for sale. This type of horses are money makers to their owner and if the horsemen of Grant county would quit raising cayuses and raise good draft horses, that are always in great demand and bring good figures, they would find horse-raising a profitable business. We will venture to say that it will not take more grass or hay to raise a good horse than it does to raise a cayuse, and the former sell readily at from $100 to $200, while the latter brings from $15 to $50.—Grant County Enterprise.

Kendrick Bank Reorganized.

The controlling interest of the Kendrick State bank has been purchased by John W. Bradbury and George K. Reed and Mr. Bradbury has succeeded A. W. Gordon as cashier, the change having been made yesterday. Mr. L. P. Bradbury has accepted the position of assistant cashier and the bank will be operated under the present management until the annual meeting of the stockholders on January 10, at which time the institution will be reorganized and new officers elected. The present officers are E. J. Dyer of Spokane, president, and George K. Reed of Grangeville, vice-president.—Kendrick Gazette.

City Marshal Shot.

City Marshal J. G. Dietrick was shot twice by Lee Ragan, formerly of Muskrat, Wyo., in Belle McDonald's house in the red light district this morning. Both wounds are severe, but not necessarily fatal.

Once outside the intense darkness assisted Ragan in making his escape, as there are no street lights, and he has not yet been apprehended.

Ragan arrived here Thursday and put up in the red light district. Posses are out in all directions looking for him.—Northport News.

Forty Acres in Boise Basin.

John Davidson was in town yesterday with a load of potatoes from his ranch of Clear creek, tributary of Grimes creek. He has 40 acres under cultivation. He raised this year 40 tons of hay and 15 tons of potatoes. He sold the hay for $17 a ton to loggers who are working near his place. He sells his potatoes for 3 cents a pound. Mr. Davidson has 160 acres and clears some of it each year.—Boise Capital News.

New Bank at Davenport.

A new bank, to be known temporarily as "The Davenport Bank," has been opened in the Big Bend Bank building. The new institution has leased the old fixtures. The officers are: Alfred Coolidge, president; Martin McLain, cashier; Aaron Kuhn, assistant cashier. It is said that the bank is connected in a business way with the Traders' National, of Spokane.—Davenport Tribune.

He was very favorably impressed with the country and will return at an early date to make some investments here. Mr. Sharp is a well known government surveyor and his judgment on lands and their value is considered that of an expert.—Condon Globe.
